AN ARAB DISCIPLE.

Schweinfurth, the Rockford Messiah, Has a New Follower.

HE CAME CLEAR FROM THE ORIENT.

Whether He Brought Spices and Gold the Weldon Farm People Do Not Say, Insisting That Their Leader
Is Not Worldly.

ROCKFORD, June 11.—Schweinfurth's apostles have received fresh proof that their divinity is the best and purest of men. They say a Jewish Rabbi heard of Colonel Jake's claims away off in Turkey and lost no time in making a pilgrimage to the Weldon farm. He saw the shiny red whiskers and patent leather pumps, was convinced and has gone forth into far-off lands to tell the story of Jake and the angels. The apostles didn't know if the rabbi left any eastern gold at the farm or not. They say the colonel doesn't care much for the filthy lucres any way.

Too Modest

To say much for ourselves, we have kept quiet the past year and "sawed wood", but with springing grass and leafing trees we begin to feel as if it was the proper caper to blow our own horn a little.

You take a drive or walk thro Glen-Etta and Riverview, and so along south thro' Carrington, Wheeler & Whitehead additions and you will wonder why we are so modest. We are now putting down 2,000 feet more water main, thus continuing our "Riverview" system thro' both of the other additions so that every lot on the three additions will have artesian water. Today there are in course of erection seven more new homes, making in all TWENTY-FIVE homes within sixteen months. Our enterprises are so boom projects, they are just straight, plain business efforts, resulting in home building by home seekers.

If you keep your eyes open and watch Spring Brook and Riverside, you will also see there fresh surprises.
These additions are coming to the front.

If you seek a home, if you seek an investment, if you want ANYTHING in real estate, you are not in the right place till you see us. Yours very truly,

USED PISTOLS AND CLUBS.

Fight Between Police and Street Car Strikers in Grand Rapids, Mich.—Possibly That a Number of the Mob were Wounded by Bullets—A Policeman Seriously Hurt.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 11.—The most serious riot that has occurred during the strike of the street railway employees here took place Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock. Pistols and clubs were used in a fight between the police and strikers, and it is supposed that some men in the mob were wounded. If this is a fact they have thus far succeeded in concealing themselves. Early Tuesday evening Superintendent of Police Eastman received information that some movement was on foot of a serious nature. The police learned that there was to be an attempt made to blow up the north and terminal wheel and pit at the Sweet street station of the cable line. Lieut. Hurley and twenty men were sent to the spot, where they secreted themselves. After about two hours had passed two men came around the station apparently to see if the coast was clear. The lieutenant captured them and took them away.

Later a crowd of at least 200 men marched from around an embankment west of the track, where they had apparently been concealed, and came to ward the station. The officers with clubs in hand, dashed into the mob and proceeded to arrest as many as they could and a lively battle followed. A large number of the mob ran away, but others, some of them armed with clubs and revolvers, stood their ground for awhile and gave the officers a hard fight. Bullets and stones flew thick and fast for several minutes. About thirty shots were fired by the mob, but none of the officers were hit. During the melee Detective Smith received a blow that made an ugly gash in his head which required several stitches to close up. He was jumped upon but not seriously injured. The officers used their pistols quite freely. When the fight was over and the mob had been dispersed it was found that thirteen prisoners had been captured. It has been reported that several of the mob were shot, as several cries were heard during the fight, but all attempts to get authentic information as to the whereabouts of the wounded has so far been fruitless.

The men arrested and some others picked up during the day were arraigned on a charge of conspiracy and admitted to bail at $2,000 each. The men were armed with murderous-looking bludgeons. Many of the men have firearms.

the Northwestern baseball league still lives. The officers and directors of the league met in parlor W in the Palmer the season as a six-club league. All

CAUSED HIS DEATH.

Injuries Received in a Recent Accident Prove Fatal to Edward Spelman, the Well-Known Distiller.

PROBIA, Ill., June 11.—Edward Spelman, who fell from a ladder at his distillery near Pekin, Ill., last Thursday, died Wednesday at his home in this city from the effect of his injuries. Spelman was a member of the whisky trust and was worth about $1,000,000. His distillery was recently damaged by fire, and it was while superintending repairs that he met with the accident which caused his death. In the fall he struck the upturned edge of a plank and his scalp was fearfully torn and his skull fractured.

(Mr. Spelman was about 50 years old, and had lived in Peoria fifteen years. He came from the east to Peoria as an agent of eastern distillers, but soon went into business for himself. He fought the trust for a long time, but finally joined it and became prominent in its affairs. At the time of the Cronin murder Spelman was a district officer of the Clan-na-Gael—the virtual head of the organization in the state—but when called upon to testify at the trial he appeared to know nothing. His attitude as a witness brought upon him a great deal of criticism, but it failed to affect him in the least.)

God has nowhere promised to feed

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Monroe will celebrate the Fourth in a manner totally eclipsing any previous observance of the national holiday in that place.

Evansville will parade and treat itself to a display of fireworks.

Oshkosh has invited Senator Vilas to deliver the oration, Governor Peck having declined.

Two Rivers has arranged for an industrial parade and exposition in which the business of the city will be fully represented. Tubs and pails, chairs and furniture, type and cabinets will be manufactured upon floats upon the streets and all the varied interests of the place will be represented.

HER HEART IS TRUE.

Sir William Gordon Cumming Weds His Faithful Fiancee.

LONDON, June 11.—Sir William Gordon Cumming was married at 11 o'clock a. m. Wednesday in the fashionable Holy Trinity church at Chelsea, to Miss Florence Garner, daughter of the late Commodore William Garner, of New York city. Lord Thurlow gave the bride away.
Maj. Vesey Dawson, of the Coldstream guards, was the best man. Rev. Robert Eytton officiated. The marriage was practically a secret marriage.
Only twelve people were present at the ceremony. The bride looked charming and happy, and Sir William was proud-looking, cool and entirely self-possessed. There was no trace in his personal appearance of depression or emotion resulting from the verdict in the baccarat case. Lady and Sir William Gordon Cumming left this city shortly after the ceremony for the bridegroom's estate, Ayltre, near For-res, in Scotland, where they will spend the honeymoon.

It is expected that Sir William and his wife will visit the United States in the autumn. Lady Gordon Cumming is the eldest daughter of the late Commodore William Garner, of New York, who was drowned in July, 1876, with his wife, through the capsize of Mr.
Garner's yacht Mohawk.

When Sir William was convinced that a public exposure of the Tranby Croft case was inevitable he told Miss Garner all about it and offered to release her from the engagement. She refused to believe the charges made against her lover and said she did not wish to be released. Sir William insisted upon his fiancée that he might not be able to convince the world of his innocence, and that if he could not succeed in vindicting himself his position would be a very different one from what it was when he became engaged to her; that she would suffer seriously if she was the wife of what society would look upon as a ruined and disgraced man. After this conversation with his brothered Sir William even went so far as to tell two or three people who asked him about it that the report he was to marry Miss Garner was untrue. The young woman's relations also took Sir William's view of the case and urged her to at least wait for the result of the trial, but Miss Garner was obdurate. She loved Sir William, she said, and believed in his innocence no matter what the verdict might be. If he broke off the engagement it would not be because she wanted him to.

Sir William has received over seventy letters expressing sympathy with him in his troubles. It is announced that Sir William Gordon Cumming has resigned from all the clubs of which he was a member. The costs in the suit were $25,000.

The queen does not attempt to conceal the fact that she is angry with every one connected with the baccarat scandal and the effects of the royal displeasure may yet be felt in several quarters.

The denunciation of the prince of Wales by the newspaper press, especially his denunciation by the Tory press, has caused a tremendous sensation throughout Great Britain, and it is freely asserted that the revelations made during the trial of the baccarat scandal suit in court are judged to have done more to imperil the monarchy than any event which has taken place for many years in England.

CAST OUT OF CHURCH.

Five of the Six Reformed Presbyterian Ministers Accused of Heresy Expelled by the Synod.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 11.—The sensational trials of the six young ministers of the Reformed Presbyterian church ended and the synod, by a vote of 95 to 37, expelled five of them from the church.
The charges against them were scandal, libel and following divisive courses in declaring in favor of the right of franchise at a meeting in the east end of this city. Their names are:
Rev. E. M. Milligan, J. R. J. Milligan, W. H. Reed, W. L. Samsom and J.
C. K. Milligan. Rev. A. W. Mc-Clurkin's appeal was sustained, and R.
B. Burnett, a student, also charged with heresy, has not yet been tried.
Immediately after the announcement on the vote all the suspended ministers left the church. They were met on the outside by several ministers of the United Presbyterian church, who extended to them in an informal way the right hand of fellowship. The scene during the voting was very exciting. The verdict was not unexpected, and the intentions of the synod of men.

Hanged.

HICKMAN, Ky., June 11.—Lee James was hanged here Wednesday. A large and noisy but good-natured crowd was in attendance. James spent a restless night. He walked onto the scaffold laughing but wilted while being manacled and asked for whisky. His neck was broken by the fall. He killed Thomas Garvin at Fulton in November, 1889.

HOW TO USE RIFLES.

Janesville Militia Men Engage In Range Work.

METHODS OF OUT DOOR PRACTICE.

No Scores Shot as Yet For Lack of Ammunition—Outline of the Plan for Camp Competition—Will shoot in Squads of Ten.

"The best range we ever had." That is the universal verdict of Janesville militiamen concerning the new location for rifle practice. The new range is located at the foot of Main street, a high sandbank on the Paul farm making an excellent back stop for the bullets. It is within easy marching distance from the Army.

POSITIONS FOR THE DIFFERENT RANGES.

and the boys are highly elated. They are becoming impatient to secure the rifle practice which was suspended last fall. As yet they have received no ammunition, and for that reason they have not been able to do much shooting.

Why Are No Cartridges on Hand?

Captain Windsor, chief inspector of rifle practice, has not issued any order for rifle practice as yet. Last year the range work was conducted under the regulations of the regular army; the regulations being modified so as to use less ammunition, and achieve the required result. Fewer scores were shot but the percentage remained the same.

Makes Work For Windsor.

This order is still in force, but it was expected by military men that rifle work would gradually drift back to the old regime on account of the work under regular army rules making more trouble for the inspector general.

The scheme of shooting under army regulations is favored by Colonel Goldin and in many other officers who much prefer that range work still continue under the army rule. Then the work of the regular army militia stands out in clearer contrast and much good results. Doubtless the change will be opposed by the officers, although the whole matter rests with the inspector general.

Will Shoot By Tens in Camp.

While in camp the captain of each company will detail ten men to shoot each day. After three days shooting the ten men having the best score will compose the company team and will shoot such for the balance of the term. The ten men in the company teams making the best score will make up the regimental team in the state competition. This rule is now in force with the First and Third regiments, and will probably be adopted by the rest of the national guard.

Ammunition Much Needed.

Colonel Goldin has notified the inspector general that the Janesville Light Infantry have secured a range, and are only waiting for supplies to begin active work.

There is a charm about rifle shooting that causes it to be popular with the boys. The system followed has become fairly well known. At one hundred yards they shoot standing up—the rifle held off hand. As each hundred yards is added the position for shooting is changed. At two hundred yards the soldier kneels on one knee, resting his elbow on the left knee. At three hundred yards the position is again changed, and the marksman lies prone upon the earth, resting his elbows on the ground in front of him.

Must Twist to Shoot 1000 Yards.

At one thousand yards the shooter takes a grotesque position. Lying on the back with knees drawn up and head elevated, the marksman extends the rifle along his body, with one knee through the strap to take up the recoil. The right hand grasps the rifle near the center of the barrel, while the left grasps the gun about the breech. The stock is over the right shoulder, and the marksman pulls the trigger with his left thumb. The Janesville militiamen are waiting with impatience to assume these positions and cause the bell in the target bulls eye to clang.

His illness may prevent his European trip for the present, but the doctor is in hopes that he will recover sufficiently to go on. His ailment, a severe bowel complaint, has left him weak, but the danger is now over. Doctors say that he must rest for six months.

GOOD MUSIC FROM LADIES.

Janesville People Promised a Rare Treat Next Tuesday.

The entertainment by the Ladies Quartette of Whitewater, to be given in the First M. E. church, Tuesday evening, June 16, will be one of the best of the People's course. Speaking of this quartette the Whitewater Gazette says: "The music loving people of Oconomowoc enjoyed a rare treat last evening. The lecture course association of that city appreciating the fact that the first impressions are lasting, secured the Ladies' Quartette of this city, to give a concert for their initial entertainment. The quartette is composed of the following well known musical artists: Mesdames Will Lemmel and Hayward, and Misses Lottie Goodman and Nettie Wilkins, and Hattie Dennison, pianist."

A COSTLY ORGAN WRECKED.

Breaking Tackle Sends it Down a Flight of Stairs.

Down the Court Street church stairs a heavy organ crashed this morning. The instrument was being hoisted up the stairs to the music rooms of D. D. Wilson. When nearly up the tackle broke and down came the organ at a rapid rate of speed, striking the curbstone in the street.

Directly in the path of the organ was a little girl. A man standing by the doorway had barely time to catch her and swing her out of the way, thus avoiding a fatal accident. The organ was badly wrecked by colliding with the curbstone.

GOV. PECK SPEAKS TO THE BLIND.

He Thinks Assemblymen Should Visit State Institutions Yearly.

The commencement exercises at the School for the Blind last evening, were largely attended. Among the distinguished visitors were Governor George W. Peck and wife. The exercises were highly interesting, and showed much care and painstaking on the part of Mrs. Little, the superintendent, and her assistants. An excellent programme was rendered by pupils of the school. There were only three graduates, they being Jessie R. Anderson, of Janesville; Mary I. Hedburg, of Maiden Rock, and Sarah B. Squire, of Shiocton, each of whom read essays. Governor Peck made a brief speech, expressing his satisfaction with the efficiency displayed by the pupils and in the able manner in which the institution was managed. The governor related an incident occurring years ago when he was approached by Dr. J. B. Whiting in Madison to aid in securing an appropriation for this school. He thought it would be a good thing if every member of the legislature could be compelled to visit the state institutions, and spend a day in investigation, there would never be trouble in securing proper appropriations. Speeches were also made by Mr. Proctor of the state board and by Congressman Babbitt of Beloit.

FIRES STARTED BY SUN.

The Gazette Story Attracts Much Attention in Other Cities.

Some days ago The Gazette, in publishing an account of a fire in the Granger home on 155 Terrace street, gave evidence that the fire was caused by the sun aided by imperfect window glass. This item is now going the rounds of the press of the country and is attracting general interest, as it explains many fires laid to "spontaneous combustion." Sufficient evidence can be gathered right here in Janesville to establish beyond question that the theory is a true solution of many of the mysterious fires daily occurring in all parts of the country. The theory should be carefully investigated. That the facts may be established beyond doubt, and people, especially house occupants, placed upon their guard against such unseen disasters.

"JERRY" COMING BACK.

The Kansas Congressman Will be Here in Fair Week.

HIS PICNIC AUDIENCE SMALL.

Those Who Heard Him Were Not Enthusiastic Although He Showed Much Power as a Stump Speaker—He is Hard on Politicians.

"Socksless" Simpson left this morning on his Chicago accommodation, intending to stop a short time in Chicago and then proceed to his farm in Kansas to attend to his harvest. He has promised the Rock County Fair association that he will visit Janesville during the coming fair and deliver an address.

Against All Old Parties.

In his talk at the picnic ground last evening, Mr. Simpson had very little to say on financial topics. Most of the crowd had left the grounds, concluding that he would not speak at all. Those that remained waiting for the boat to return gathered around the Kansan, however, and he was persuaded to talk. He had no money, and let the silver question entirely alone. The burden of his remarks were devoted to anathemas hurled at the old political parties, he urging a war of extermination against all politicians. He advised the farmers to have nothing to do with the politicians of either party.

Not Much of a Summer Home.

"We must bury all politicians face downward," he urged, "and then let them alone to dig their way home."

"When I was down south," the speaker remarked later, "the democrats accused me of being a northern republican trying to break up the democratic party. Here in the north they accuse me of being a democrat, trying to break up the republican party. I would do both. I would break up and destroy all political parties. We have no use for politicians." Mr. Simpson is a very clever speaker, one especially qualified for stump speaking, but his theories of government did not seem to meet with much favor, there being little applause.
